

CLINICAL SUPERVISOR TRAINING

HOMEWORK

The following assignments are designed to support your development as a clinical supervisor through self-awareness, applied learning, and preparation for live training.

Overview

This course includes 33 hours of pre-training homework to be completed alongside the recorded lectures by Dr. Johnson that make up the other 12 hours. The purpose is to build foundational knowledge, increase self-awareness, and prepare for active participation in training.

Time Requirement

All assignments combined should reflect approximately 33 hours of engagement.

Submission & Communication Requirements

While notetaking is highly recommended for your professional growth and development, none of your notes are required to be submitted to complete this training. Quizzes are included within the training to ensure completion in certain circumstances. No other homework must be turned in directly.

Training Materials

The supervision manual and all subsequent supervision activity resources will be provided online for your access upon purchase of the training. Participants are not required to review any materials prior to training, though it is recommended for live/virtual participation. All concepts, tools, and materials will be introduced and applied during the training.

Instructor Communication

Participants are encouraged to submit questions throughout the homework period. Responses will be provided by the instructor.

Lectures and Homework

All lectures from Dr. Johnson can be watched in any order, but it is recommended to follow the layout provided within the structure of the training. Likewise, all Homework can be completed at any time within the training. The Homework consists of 6 videos of direct application of Supervision principles within an actual supervision session from Dr. Johnson, along with three required books for your professional development. It is highly encouraged, yet not required, to take notes throughout the process to better understand the material theory and its direct application.

Required External Resources

The following external resources are required to complete the training:

- Dr. Johnson's book, Pace Setter, will be mailed to you and is included in the cost of the training.
- You will need to purchase your own copy of The New Handbook of Counseling Supervision by L. DiAnne Borders. A link for purchase may be found here.
- The book, Integrity, by Dr. Henry Cloud is required to complete the course. Participants are encouraged but not required to purchase the book. A medium such as audiobook is acceptable for this assignment. A link to purchase if desired is found here.

There will be a quiz within the training after each reading to ensure comprehension.

Evaluation and Certificate Access

The evaluation must be completed before the certificate can be issued. Once the evaluation is completed, along with the rest of the training as being marked complete, your certificate will be available to access from the front page of your profile.
